CIRCULAR

Sub: Consideration of UGC-CARE list publications prospectively for promotions/placements under UGC-CAS – reg.

Ref: 1) Resolution of the Executive Council dated 17-11-2022
2) Vice-Chancellor's orders dated 02/12/2022

Attention of the faculty is drawn to the UGC Public notices dated 14-06-2019 and 16-09-2019 on academic integrity, wherein, it was stated that only the research publications indexed in UGC-CARE list should be used for all academic purposes and with effect from 14th June, 2019 research publications only from the journals indexed in UGC-CARE List should be considered prospectively for any academic purpose.

The IQAC circular dated September 14, 2020 emphasized that the UGC-CARE List alone will be used for award of APIs (in the case of journal publications) for all direct recruitment and CAS promotions, in accordance with the UGC Public Notices.

After careful consideration of the above UGC public notices, the Executive Council at its 189th meeting held on 17th November 2022 resolved to consider the research publications in the journals indexed in the UGC-CARE list publications prospectively only with effect from 14/06/2019 and the research publications in peer-reviewed and UGC listed journals prior to that date for the placements within the Assistant Professor cadre, and for promotions to Associate Professor, Professor and Senior Professor under Career Advancement scheme as per the UGC Regulations 2018.

Henceforth, the teachers who wish to apply for placement/ promotion under the provisions of CAS may note that the research publications in peer-reviewed and UGC listed journals up to 13/06/2019 and the research publications in the journals indexed in the UGC-CARE list publications with effect from 14/06/2019 will be considered for CAS promotions.

The faculty, whose CAS applications for placements/promotions were not considered previously on the grounds of not having the required number publications in the UGC-CARE list, may submit their updated applications now to review the same in accordance with the decision of the Executive Council.
