Prof. Bhangya Bhukya, Ph. D (University of Warwick, UK)
Office Room. 138
Social Science Building
Email: bbhangya@uohyd.ac.in
Ph.No. 040-23133150

Prof. Bhangya Bhukya is specialised in Modern Indian History. His research interests include community histories, the effects of power/knowledge, governmentality and dominance, the state and Nationalism, intellectual histories of subaltern communities, identity politics by forest and hill people in the nineteenth and twentieth century. Before Joining University of Hyderabad in 2014, he taught history at Osmania University (1997-2010) and The English and Foreign Languages University (2010-2014). He was Postdoctoral Fellow (2010) at the School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London, and was Fulbright Nehru Visiting Fellow at the University of Pennsylvania (2022-23).