

DEPARTMENT OF SANSKRIT STUDIES

School of Humanities, University of Hyderabad

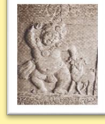

LAUNCHES on AUGUST 4, 2021

An innovative course cutting across disciplines

WE LIVE, YOU LIVE AND THE MUTE 'OTHER'

(Negotiating Human – Non-Human Historical Interactions in Pre-modern South Asia)

An IoE Course

TEAM TEACHING with faculty from School of Humanities and Social Sciences

Join online classes addressed by renowned scholars in the field

Uma Chakravarti (Delhi), Kathleen Morrison (Pennsylvania), Reiko Ohnuma (Dartmouth) Andrew Bauer (Stanford), Mahesh Rangarajan (Krea) Nachiket Chanchani (Michigan), Ajay Dandekar and Sudeshna Guha (Shiv Nadar), Sita Reddy (Hyderabad)

Special lectures by

Raghavendra Gadagkar (IISC Bangalore) and Dipesh Chakravarty (Chicago)

Lectures on Archaeological landscapes, concepts in Sanskrit texts, narratives and story-telling, artistic representations, colonial interventions and folk imaginaries around human- non-human relations in in pre-modern South Asia

For the first time a unique and innovative course developed that puts the non-human as centre stage in our analysis of how it was perceived, represented and engaged with.

Classes will be held every Monday and Wednesday IST 4.30-6.30 pm

Prerequisites: Most suitable for students in their final year graduation and / or entering their second year Master's program. Others interested may send an email given below. There are limited seats available for the course

Exams & Credits: Exams, both as internal ongoing assessment and end-semester written & oral exams shall be conducted. Credits / Certificate to non-HCU students shall be transferred. Please check if your University /Institute is willing to accept these before applying.

Note the following

MEDIUM OF INSTRUCTION ENGLISH - AN ONLINE COURSE ONLY

FOR HCU STUDENTS

All HCU Final Year Graduates and Second Year Masters students can opt for this Course OE101 after completing their Registration for the Monsoon Semester by August 2, 2021 on the University E-Governance Portal. Admissions on first come first basis.

Classes for Course shall begin on Wednesday August 4, 2021 at 4.30 pm

FOR NON-HCU STUDENTS

Students in Final Year Graduation or Second Year MA from any University in India or Abroad can submit their applications by following this link <https://forms.gle/pnYC6KyyZ73qq7yx9>

Applications of NON-HCU Students shall NOT be accepted after 5:00 pm Wednesday July 28, 2021

Admissions on a first come first basis

See Flyer 1 for other details at Departmental website click HERE, at Facebook click HERE, at Twitter click HERE, at UoH Herald click HERE!

FOR GENERAL ENQUIRIES: oe101@uohyd.ac.in

COURSE CO-ORDINATOR: Aloka Parasher Sen, Professor Emerita, Department of Sanskrit Studies (Please click HERE for more details)