NOTICE

It is observed that many of the students have not submitted their valid income certificate along with their application for sanction of UoH Students Assistance (UoH SA) / Digital Access Grant (DAG) for the semester July - December 2021. Therefore, they are advised to submit the valid income certificate (issued for the financial year 2021-22) to the Dy. Dean, Students' Welfare, Fellowships & Scholarships Section, on or before 18.05.2022. The requests for consideration of valid income certificates, received without endorsement of respective Head and Dean shall not be considered. Income Certificates received after the due date will not be considered and processed.

Those students who have already submitted their valid income certificates along with their request / representations need not to submit the same again.
